

If you are able to reproduce this outline you might like to colour it in with soft pencils, referring to the original in the lesson as you go along. Or you might prefer to colour just the people in the picture. We noticed that the picture falls into two parts. You might like to colour one part and leave the other in outline.